

Notice regarding Open Source software

The product contains Open Source software that has been released by programmers under specific licensing requirements such as the „General Public License“ (GPL) Version 2 or 3, the „Lesser General Public License“ (LGPL), the „Apache License“ or similar licenses.

To the extent that any accompanying material such as instruction manuals, handbooks etc. contain copyright notices, conditions of use or licensing requirements that contradict any applicable Open Source license, these conditions are inapplicable.

The use and distribution of any Open Source software contained in the product is exclusively governed by the respective Open Source license.

The software is provided by its programmers without ANY WARRANTY, whether implied or expressed, of any fitness for a particular purpose, and the programmers DECLINE ALL LIABILITY for damages, direct or indirect, that result from the use of this software.

This disclaimer does in no way affect the responsibility of Vodafone.

AVAILABILITY OF SOURCE CODE:

Where the applicable license entitles you to the source code of such software and/or other additional data, you may obtain it for a period of three years after purchasing this product, and, if required by the license conditions, for as long as we offer customer support for the product.

If this document is made available to you on the website of Vodafone and Vodafone is offering a download of the firmware, the offer to receive the source code is valid for a period of three years and, if required by the license conditions, for as long as we offer customer support for the product.

Vodafone provides an option for obtaining the source code:

You may obtain any version of the source code that has been distributed by Vodafone for the cost of reproduction of the physical copy by sending a request directly to:

Vodafone GmbH

Keyword: Open Source EB904

e-mail: FU-legal.opensource@vodafone.com

In your request please provide the name, model number seen at the box and software version, as stated at the accessible Web interface under “About” of the device, for which you wish to obtain the corresponding source code and your contact details in case of questions. We will send you the most recent version of the source code, unless you specify a particular version number. In this case, we will send the version specified by you.

The source code will be distributed WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY and licensed under the same license as the corresponding binary/object code.

This offer is valid to anyone.

Vodafone is eager to comply with all requirements set by various Free or Open Source software licenses.
